Why should I read? Here's what the authors say!

Drew Daywalt, a children's author who wrote 'The Day the Crayons Quit' said the following about reading:

Reading is sublime because it allows you to simultaneously escape and understand everyone you know. It also teaches you new words!

Welcome to New Members of Staff

A big welcome to two new faces that you may have seen around school this week. Miss Chafer and Miss Walke are both student teachers who will be joining our team. Miss Chafer will be working in Squirrel Class for the Autumn term and Summer term whilst Miss Walke will be joining Fox Class for the duration of the Autumn term. We are overjoyed to have them both working with us.

Harvest Festival Celebrations

A huge well done to all the children who put on a marvellous Harvest Festival. A massive thank you goes to Ann Kerridge, Reverend Elaine Mundy and Matt Harrison who helped greatly in delivering the service. We heard from Gill Thomas that the collection at the church raised £80.15 which brought the grand total raised by the Parish for Practical Action to £330.47. Thank you to everybody for their kind donations for the local foodbank too.

Sensational Cycling Saturday

Head to the Royal Cornwall Showground between 10am and 4pm this Saturday (29th September) for a sensational cycling Saturday. Entry is free and parking is only £5. There will be lots of fun on bikes for all the family.

Race for Life & MacMillan Coffee Afternoon

We are pleased to announce that our hugely successful Race for Life & MacMillan coffee afternoon will be returning this year. The children will be running different distances depending on their age. We will ask for a donation towards 'Race for Life' from children, parents and staff if they wish to run. Alongside this, cakes and coffee will be on sale in the playground by the school field. A reminder that the event date has changed and will now be held on the school field at 2:15pm on Wednesday 3rd October. Any cake donations would be greatly received. We look forward to seeing you at this event.
