Headteacher's Update

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you have all had a restful and enjoyable weekend.

What a wonderful first week back it was! A particular well done must go to our Year 1s who completed their phonics screening check last week - they all did brilliantly. Our clubs are all now back in full swing and the warmer weather brings the possibility of using our school field for lunch times.

A huge thank you to those of you who supported our cake sale before half term for the RSPCA. We managed to raise £78.55 for the very worthy cause.

I am delighted to inform you that we are now in a position to confirm our class arrangements for September 2022 - please see overleaf for more information. Rest assured that plans will be made for pupils to meet their new class teachers before the Summer holidays.

As always, please feel free to come to me with any questions or comments that you may have about your child's / children's experiences at Cardinham School.

Best wishes,

Mr D Jones
Headteacher

Attendance Policy

Our governors approved a new Attendance-Policy which you will be able to read by clicking on the link within this sentence. We recommend that you take the time to look through the policy to understand how will be addressing low attendance after half term.

"If your child is absent from school without authorisation, you will be committing an offence under the Education Act 1996. We may submit a request to Cornwall Council for a Penalty Notice to be issued, in accordance with Sections 444A and 444B of the said Act. Penalty Notices are issued per liable parent, per child and each carry a fine of £60 if paid within 21 days or £120 if paid after this but within 28 days. Failure to pay the Penalty Notice may result in legal action. Absence not authorised by the school may result in a prosecution in the Magistrates' Court under Section 444(1) or Section 444(1A) of the Education Act 1996, leading to a fine of up to £2,500 and/or a custodial sentence. Cornwall Council may also apply for the costs incurred in taking the matter to Court."
